Weekly Update

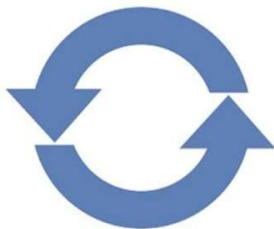

Overview

The installation of the protective netting is now complete on Cowden. Please note that you may only use the drop zones if the netting interferes with your stance or swing. The turf has also been laid on the 1st green of Arndean but there will be a temporary green until further notice as the full green recovers.

Next week is a busy week at the Club. On Thursday there is the Senior 3 Man Texas Scramble Open during the day and then Junior Coaching and Prizegiving in the evening. On Friday evening the Ladies are having their Fashion Show in the Clubhouse. On Sunday we also have our final Open of the year which is the Ladies Greensomes Open. There are also various other groups booked in throughout the week on the golf course so if you are booked in to play, please park courteously and arrive in plenty of time.

Course Rotation

The courses will be rotating on Monday 16th September.

Do you need new golf shoes?

We have plenty in stock from FootJoy, Callaway and Mizuno so feel free to come and try some on. If we do not have your exact size let us know and we can get them ordered in for you.

We can also re-spike your shoes if you need some more grip as we head into winter golf.

Greens Coring

The Greenkeepers are planning on coring the greens week commencing 14th October. This is essential maintenance and takes place every year to aerate the greens which ensures they are kept in good condition.

If you would like to volunteer to help the Greenkeeping team, please email enquiries@muckhartgolf.com.
