Weekly Update

Overview

Our Season Closer took place today which included 2 Greenkeeper's revenge holes and a unique longest drive challenge. Congratulations to Richard Paterson, Kevin Murray, Gerry Keegan and Alistair Trainer for winning the team competition. Congratulations also goes to Gerry Keegan for winning the nearest the pin prize and to Leslie Baillie and Alistair Trainer for winning the longest drive prizes (with a persimmon driver)!

The buggies will be leaving the Club tomorrow (7th October) and will return at the beginning of April 2025. The use of personal single-seater buggies will be at the discretion of the greenkeeping team subject to weather conditions.

Featured Partner

LCA Driving

LCA is a family-run business, offering driver training to the highest standards in a friendly, relaxed environment, enabling new road users to achieve their goals. Lynn & Chris Alexander understand that learning to drive can be challenging and they aim to deliver an enjoyable and rewarding experience, which will not only lead to the attainment of a driving licence but also ensure that their clients become safe and confident drivers. LCA covers all aspects of driving during the training phase, not 'just enough to get you through your test'. Lynn & Chris both bring extensive field and training knowledge ensuring that their clients meet their goals. Their reputation is first-class as they lead the way in local driving instruction, mainly covering Muckhart, Dollar, Kinross, Auchterarder and Dunfermline. Other areas will also be considered depending on requirements.

In addition to providing instruction in Manual and Automatic vehicles, LCA offers a range of other services including 'Pass Plus', City Familiarisation, Night Driving, Confidence Building and other personalised training sessions to suit the client.
